Re: 111 Sullivan Street, Apt. 2BR
New York, New York 10012 (the "Premises")

Dear Mr. Dincer:

As you know, we are the attorneys for Sullivan Properties, L.P, ("Landlord") your Landlord at the Premises. Over this past weekend in particular, you have contacted and harassed Landlord's employees, management and owners. Please be advised that under no circumstances should you contact my client or anyone associated with the Landlord directly. If you have a maintenance request or issue with the building, you may contact me via e-mail only. I will only respond to proper requests; any other communications will not be responded to.

By the terms of your own documents, including your numerous court filings, you have filed fallacious claims and/or reports with the Better Business Bureau, the Federal Trade Commission, State Farm Realty Insurance LLC, as well as others. On behalf of the Landlord, we hereby demand you cease and desist from any and all contact and interference with any business affiliates of the Landlord, including, but not limited to, State Farm Realty Insurance LLC, and cease and desist from the dissemination of false information regarding the Landlord. Your conduct, including your slanderous and libelous communications are defamatory, and give rise to various legally cognizable claims, including, but not limited to, tortious interference with contract. Landlord will pursue any and all of its legal remedies against you should you persist in such conduct.

Finally, if you feel that you simply cannot live in the Premises, the Landlord offers to release you from the balance of the term of the Lease without penalty. However, if you choose to remain as a resident in the Premises, then Landlord expects you to abide by the terms of your lease, and treat the building, as well as its employees and residents, with the same level of respect with which you expect to be treated. Please know that the Landlord will assert its rights under the Lease and at law if there are any further incidents.

As stated previously, Zucker / Manhattan Skyline / MEWS in Manhattan.
I not sure how many occupants it would grant them this privilege, whereby others can use as precedent for invasion of privacy in the sanctity of one's home and a breach of constitutional rights.

Added State Farm filed on the 9TH, and a letter to me on the 10TH.

Can you please makes sure this gets to the Equality and Gender for REBNY as well for the agents, NY real estate brokers are not allowed to tell me what gender is prominent in any neighborhood.

Also that they filed the material changes with the SEC as required and to protect the investors of the underlying Mother Company in this matter.

Please make sure the regulators are privy to the underlying Accouting Requirements of large institutions, namely State Farm Insurance which I filed separately with the SEC and not with the Auditors of the Zucker entities. I am not sure if Miss Zucker has alerted her insurance affiliate of the risk, and the upper bound of her rent requirements, which were not properly accounted for wilfully to maintain and "deregulate" the RENT Regulated Units... for which she had no certificate of occupancy.

This would release and enable them to also increase the rents to any limit, at 111 Sullivan and all the contiguous properties — the Sullivan MEWS; which is what I requested as an all-embodied MEWS — not NEWS, it's facts.

My rent in the lease was a different price but the rent statements and side letter represent a 135% difference. The transfer of leases to the insurance register, with respect to what was paid, invoiced, and as entered in NY Supreme Court should be reviewed for audit and by the SEC for a mismarked book value of State Farm; which I filed two days ago with the sec, and uploaded the necessary documents thereto.

It's Eviction Moratorium btw... that's why I paid my rent on time, the Italian variety holds a different meaning..

To spare you a mockery and my disdain of Plaintiff, it's choice of representatives and strategy in this matter has created complications beyond the scope of an edifice, but has created a mockery of the procedural foundations of The New York State Supreme Court System, at the discretion of the Zucker Family was violated and during a time when "housing" was a "protected/sensitive" area of jurisprudence during a pandemic – created a criminal procedure of liabilities to traverse the protections of "EVICTON MEMORANDUM" because we paid the rent on time.

Representatives, Attorneys, and even "concierge" services were presented in an attempt to hold me liable for ALL OF ITS TENANTS, which also provided me a letter of "forgiveness" and invitation to "remain" as a tenant following my motion to enjoin the material parties in a change of caption – the following day by Ingram LLP (obo Zucker / Manhattan Skyline).

THAT arbitrarily computed value no less than $500,000.00 is nowhere on the rent roster, not the one that I entered from public record in the tax-abatement documents between STATE FARM and
The Zucker's transferring rights under the DOB.

A1. Judicial Review, Welcome Home 'Sky's the LIMIT'

Procedural Due Process also requires that a state provide for the judicial review of punitive damages awards. Absent an available opportunity for review, or an adequate substitute, a punitive damages award may act as an arbitrary deprivation of property in violation of the Due Process Clause. Moreover, an appellate court's review of the constitutionality of individual punitive damage awards must be de novo. De novo review represents a searching review in which the appellate court owes no deference to the lower court's decision on matters of law. The Court has held that no lesser standard of review is sufficient to protect the interests of defendants challenging large punitive damages awards.

A2. Adequate Notice, ref.: direct to HAGGLER

The Due Process clause also imposes a notice requirement on the imposition of punitive damages. In order to assess punitive damages against a defendant, a state must first have "fairly indicated" that the defendant's conduct could potentially be subject to punitive punishment.
In addition, the defendant must have notice of the "severity of the penalty that a state may impose."

A3. Substantive Due Process

Substantive Due Process ensures that certain fundamental aspects of an individual's interest in life, liberty, and property are protected from arbitrary or unjustified government interference by subjecting government intrusion into those interests to increased scrutiny. Although the Court has implied that substantive due process prohibits the imposition of excessive or arbitrary punitive damages, a majority opinion has never explicitly invoked substantive due process to invalidate a punitive damages award. Moreover, the Court has been unwilling to lay out a "mathematical" bright line rule on what constitutes an excessive award—instead opting to establish an extensive analytical framework to be applied in making such a judgment. Most commentators, however, characterize the framework utilized in BMW and State Farm as based on the dictates of substantive due process.<sup>79</sup>

CONTEXT OF j-XX ABATEMENTS
++ State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Co. v. Campbell

In-State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Co. v. Campbell, the company had taken an automobile accident case to trial as part of an alleged national strategy to limit its payments on claims, refusing to settle even though, as the jury found, State Farm put the insured at risk of being personally liable for a verdict higher than the policy limit. The Court overturned the 145-to-1 ratio of punitive to compensatory damages, holding that "few awards exceeding a single-digit ratio between punitive and compensatory damages ... will satisfy due process."<sup>40</sup> By delineating five reprehensibility factors from its discussion in BMW of the first guidepost, the State Farm Court expanded its previous holding and then determined that the presence of only one of the five "may not be sufficient to sustain a punitive damages award; and the absence of all [five factors] renders any award suspect."
Criticizing how the company's handling of the auto accident case was used as a nationwide condemnation of State Farm, the majority held that lawful out-of-state conduct "must have a nexus to the specific harm suffered by the plaintiff" in order to be probative in the state where the conduct is unlawful and enable the jury to punish the defendant for its conduct in the unlawful state only.
Though it declined to limit comparisons of punitive and compensatory damages awards to a single-digit ratio, the Court also emphasized that in order to comport with due process, awards will likely not be in excess of such a ratio. Finally, in a statement clarifying BMW, the Court noted that a defendant's wealth "cannot justify an otherwise unconstitutional punitive damages award."

++ BMW of North America, Inc. v. Gore
BMW of North America, Inc. v. Gore, 517 U.S. 559, 568 (1996) (quoting Honda Motor Co. v. Oberg, 512 U.S. 415, 420 (1994)). BMW of North America, Inc. v. Gore established three standards, or guideposts, to "identify constitutionally excessive" punitive damages awards. The jury had awarded actual damages of $4,000 and punitive damages of $2 million because BMW repainted damage on new cars without disclosing the repair to consumers. According to the 5-4 majority—Justices Stevens, O'Connor, Kennedy, Souter, and Breyer—the punitive damages award violated the Due Process Clause because, at 500 times greater than the plaintiff's actual damages, the amount was grossly excessive. The Court reasoned that the Due Process Clause protects against "judgments

Dear Mr. Dincer:

As you know, we are the attorneys for Sullivan Properties, L.P, ("Landlord") your Landlord at the Premises. Over this past weekend in particular, you have contacted and harassed Landlord's employees, management and owners. Please be advised that under no circumstances should you contact my client or anyone associated with the Landlord directly. If you have a maintenance request or issue with the building, you may contact me via e-mail only. I will only respond to proper requests; any other communications will not be responded to.

By the terms of your own documents, including your numerous court filings, you have filed fallacious claims and/or reports with the Better Business Bureau, the Federal Trade Commission, State Farm Realty Insurance LLC, as well as others. On behalf of the Landlord, we hereby demand you cease and desist from any and all contact and interference with any business affiliates of the Landlord, including, but not limited to, State Farm Realty Insurance LLC, and cease and desist from the dissemination of false information regarding the Landlord. Your conduct, including your slanderous and libelous communications are defamatory, and give rise to various legally cognizable claims, including, but not limited to, tortious interference with contract. Landlord will pursue any and all of its legal remedies against you should you persist in such conduct.

Finally, if you feel that you simply cannot live in the Premises, the Landlord offers to release you from the balance of the term of the Lease without penalty. However, if you choose to remain as a resident in the Premises, then Landlord expects you to abide by the terms of your lease, and treat the building, as well as its employees and residents, with the same level of respect with which you expect to be treated. Please know that the Landlord will assert its rights under the Lease and at law if there are any further incidents.

ATTN: MR. WILLIAM MCKENZIE
C/O THE HONORABLE SHLOMO HAGGLER, J.S.C.

As promised during yesterday's mediation and to assist the Honorable Haggler to memorialize the amiable terms agreed to by parties:

Accept this message as a letter further affirming the order for one plumber (who, the "examiner") to enter and examine my bathroom; one superintendent (Adnan Utic) who will wait for the investigative report of the examiner together with a second Plumber, will remain at a distance and outside of my Residence. I am willing to further accommodate the "examiner" to be joined by Ms. Laskowitz as a courtesy and as an extension of my good faith dealings.

If the appointed "Plumbing service provider", or contractor, can responsibly maintain the integrity of the Judge's stipulations, and conduct themselves conversely to the eclectic behavior and actions as exhibited by Ms. Laskowitz; I once again agree (and have never objected to) a scheduled entry of my Premises on Tuesday to help calm any emotional imbalance as exhibited in the Plaintiff's claims – perhaps the plumber's assessment can keep their representative under control.

MANDATORY ENTRY: Tuesday, September 29TH / 9:30 AM EST

- I once again permit for a plumber (who will cover his shoes, wear a mask, gloves – and per the Honorable Hagler's ORDER; saran wrap is an acceptable form of a "disposable coverall" which is also a requirement).

So call a different precinct - thanks again for your confirmation.

Good Afternoon,

As Officer Pena stated you have to contact the first precinct NCO Officers regarding your complaint. Also, the DG_23PCTDVO email you CC'd is for Domestic Violence related complaints. I read through most of your emails below and you seem to be having an issue with a tenant, which is not considered Domestic. I don't know the whole story so in the event your complaint is Domestic related you can CC this email and it will go to your Precinct DV Officers: DG_001PCTDVO. I CC'd your resident precinct NCO's in this email. Be safe.

Enjoy and let me know if stalking or eavesdropping or what crimes are reasonable for an arrest.
- like a hostile subject/perp.

Whatever it is you know who I am, because the 1st precinct arrested me for cutting an Ethernet cord... when someone called them after giving me no other option.

I still don't hold you liable...
Case was vacated immediately.
but zip code 10019 is on 6th and 55TH.

Isn't it funny how quickly they called...
to have me restrained.

You think they were watching me get undressed?

Or maybe... after 4 months of my asking kindly,

Goodnight.

PS. Tell Decandia I say hello, and thank you for getting back to me.

BTW

They didn't even have a certificate of occupancy, hence no police records filed for the address.
